

Vision, challenges, objectives and lines of action

Vision

People in Switzerland live in an environment that is conducive to health, regardless of their state of health and socio-economic status. They benefit from a modern and high-quality and financially sustainable health system.

4 challenges

8 objectives

1. Utilise health data and technologies
2. Promote health literacy
3. Safeguard care and funding
4. Ensure healthy ageing
5. Improve quality of care
6. Control costs and ease burden on low-income households
7. Promote health via the natural world
8. Promote health at work

16 lines of action

- ▶ 1.1 Promote digitalisation and use of data
- ▶ 1.2 Define how new technologies should be used
- ▶ 2.1 Run public information campaigns
- ▶ 2.2 Improve the use of information on health and disease
- ▶ 3.1 Provide more long-term carers
- ▶ 3.2 Optimise funding of long-term care
- ▶ 4.1 Improve prevention of non-communicable diseases
- ▶ 4.2 Promote child and adolescent health
- ▶ 5.1 Enhance coordinated care
- ▶ 5.2 Improve medical treatments
- ▶ 6.1 Set targets for cost development
- ▶ 6.2 Optimise the individual premium reduction
- ▶ 7.1 Reduce environmental health risks
- ▶ 7.2 Preserve and promote nature and landscape quality
- ▶ 8.1 Prevent the negative health effects of new forms of work
- ▶ 8.2 Foster healthy work environments

2030
Santé • Gesundheit • Sanità • Sanadad