RSV is the most common cause of hospitalisation for babies during the winter months.

Protect your baby with RSV vaccination.

Is your due date between October and March?

Your vaccination will protect your baby during the first few months of life.
Timing: between 32+0 and 36+0 weeks of gestation, at least 14 days before delivery

Talk to your doctor.

Schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft
Confédération suisse
Confederazione Svizzera
Confederaziun svizra

Swiss Confederation

Federal Department of Home Affairs FDHA
Federal Office of Public Health FOPH

316.539.1eng